Freedom from cumbersome wired mics provides unlimited movement and enhanced comfort for vocalists and musicians on stage and in practice spaces. Feel free to “roam about the cabin” when you bring your single wireless mic system along. The GM-1W padded bag from Gator Cases provides neatly organized storage for lavaliers, cables, wireless hand-held and receiver inside a lightweight durable nylon outer shell. Whether setting up or packing up, both the front and rear of the GM-1W bag feature zipper enclosures allowing easy access to your system. The delicate wireless system antenna can stay safely inside with the ability to extend as needed. Additional conveniences include an adjustable and removable nylon shoulder strap and handy information card window. Enjoy your practice, show or impromptu jam sessions much more comfortably thanks to your single wireless mic system. Even better, your system enjoys solid security and premium protection inside the GM-1W padded bag from Gator Cases.
